

From Dvořák Hall to the Rudolfinum Roof

Guided tours for those who would like to take a look behind the scenes and learn about Rudolfinum's history as well as its current operations.

You will see the Dvořák and Suk Halls, take a look at the representative salons and also visit the main hall. If the weather is good, we will also go up to the Rudolfinum roof which offers one of the most beautiful views of Prague. During the tour, there will be time for questions and to share your impressions.

The tour lasts approximately 60 minutes. The tour is held in Czech.

Basic entrance fee: 150 CZK.

Reduced admission 75 CZK for children from 7 years, students, seniors, and holders of disability cards with guides.

The tour does not provide complete disability access.
